

THIS IS AIKIDO, described by aficionados as "a flowing, beautiful thing," which is a faster, more graceful form of jujitsu. It requires a minimum of effort to turn an opponent's strength against himself by following his "force flow," as Dr. Evan Baltazzi, Brookfield research chemist and highest ranked aikido teacher in the midwest, is doing to Duane Marquardt of La Grange.