Dear Dr. Baltazzi:

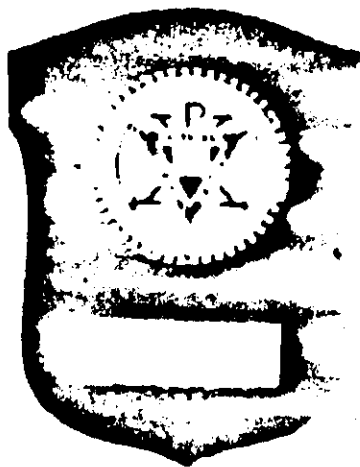

It is with sincere pleasure that I report to you that you have been selected by the Board of Directors of the West Suburban YMCA to receive the Association's top program award, the "Outstanding Program Plaque" for your many services to and support of the West Suburban YMCA.

The award will be presented to you at the 21st Annual Meeting on November 21st (see enclosed flyer)..

We have already received your reservation card and are most pleased that you will be present to receive this most deserved honor.

Yours very truly,

H. A. Baldrige
Chairman,
Board of Directors

1967 OUTSTANDING PROGRAM AWARD

DR. EVAN S. BALTAZZI has been the Judo Instructor at West Suburban YMCA for the past seven and one half years. He has been a member of the Health & Physical Education Committee for the past five years, presently he is chairman of the YMCA Illinois Area Judo Committee; a National YMCA Judo representative; and a member of the A.A.U. and Olympic Committees for Judo.

Dr. Baltazzi is the originator of A.S.P. (American Self Protection) the course that is currently being taught to men, women and boys at the West Suburban YMCA. A.S.P. is a system of self protection, including self-defense, based on body-mind coordination. It has been specially developed with the needs of the American public in mind.
